Ask Your Granny To Make Money Online

Today a lot of people face some difficulties while starting their own internet businesses, but for those people who keep fighting, the advantage is incredible. The most common difficulty is how to get started. Everyone knows that it takes some money to make money. But how to start this process running?

If you have a great idea and probably you even have a good looking website, but you cannot get visitors you need or afford to purchase web traffic, it is the right time to get some inspiration and help. The best way to get assistance is to ask an experienced affiliate marketer, but do you know someone who will fit this description?

Everywhere you go, you are told to that articles are the best way to promote your website, but it is not always easy to start doing. Writing long articles devoted to the topic of your website could be challenging or the topic of your website could be hard to produce a lot of article about. What you really need is a new topic. And one of the easiest ways to get it is to ask your granny.

Probably, recipes are the easiest texts that could be accepted as articles. So it could be not so bad start. You can create a small recipe website and start filling it with recipes from different article resources. Within a short amount of time you will have simple and useful website that is filled with various recipes.

And now it is the time to ask assistance of your grandma. Ask her about your family recipes. And after it all you have to do is to format recipes in the best way and submit them. While you are waiting till your granny remembers all her family recipes, it is a great time to write down all your favorite recipes. If you do not know them by heart, you can look them up and alter them to your taste. It is an easy way to get some links to your newly made website.

How does this do any good to your non-cooking website?

If you target your keywords and keyword phrases correctly, then you could stand a chance to making a little revenue from simple website. When the website is devoted to cooking and there are a lot of recipes, so are the keywords, look at all the various names of dishes, ingredients and so on. You do not have to have any problems in finding keywords to target. It could not be a stream of visitors, but with the proper affiliate program or contextual advertising for the lazy, you could make some revenue from it.

The other advantage of the endless keyword variations is the ability to point somewhat relevant links to different websites.
